

EINSTEIN ON DOCK BOARD.

Mayor Strong Appoints the Anti-Platt Ex-Mayorality Candidate.

SUCCEEDS J. SERGEANT GRAM

Dr. McSweney Named to Be School Commissioner in Place of Gerard.

OLCOTT FOR CIVIL SERVICE.

Allderman's Brother Gets the Place Reserved for W. Bayard Cutting—Gridley City Marshal.

Mayor Strong to-day made the following appointments: EDWIN EINSTEIN, to be Dock Commissioner, in place of J. Sergeant Gram, resigned, salary $5,000. Dr. DANIEL E. McSWENEY, School the death of Jesse Seligman was the only Hebrew member of the Union League Club. He was the leader of the reformers in the old Republican County Committee and it was on his motion that the resolution appointing the Committee of Thirty to re-organize the party was adopted.

Of late he has been identified with reform politics in the Twenty-first District. He and his brother, Henry L. Einstein, are largely interested in southern coal lands, and Edwin is president of several manufacturing concerns.

He is a native of Cincinnati, O., and came to New York when quite young. He was educated at the old Free Academy—now the College of the City of New York—and at Union College, Schenectady.

While a member of Congress Mr. Einstein was prominent in the discussion of economic questions, and attracted considerable attention by his argument in favor of the tariff. He was elected to the Twenty-first District in 1890, and was re-elected in 1892.

Dr. McSweney lives at 123 East Twenty-ninth street. He is well known as a physician and was formerly associated with the celebrated Dr. Burke. He is an old Seventh Warder. His brother, Roy Dr. Patrick F. McSweney, is pastor of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Eighth street and Avenue B.

Mr. Vetchen OLCOTT is a brother of Republican Allderman OLCOTT. He is a lawyer, with offices at 4 Warren street, lives at West Seventy-second street. He will be the fifth member of the Board, holding the place that has been offered to W. Bayard Cutting. He is a member of the Four Hundred, and may be a sympathizer with Thomas C. Platt, as his brother is a strong Platt man. He, however, has taken little part in politics.

Mr. Gridley, the new City Marshal, lives at West Eighteenth street, in the Thirtieth Assembly District. W. Bayard Cutting could not accept the place owing to his being a member of the City Club, the rules of which restrict members from holding public office. Van Vechten OLCOTT, Civil Service Commissioner, No salary. EDWARD L. GRIDLEY, City Marshal. Mr. Einstein lives at the Hotel Buckingham. He is prominent banker, is anti-Platt, and in 1892 was the Republican candidate for Mayor against Thomas F. Gilroy. He is an ex-Congressman, and after

LEXOW NOT AFRAID.

Sneers at the Seventy's Mass-Meeting to Oppose His Bills.

Protests of Wealthy Clubmen, He Says, Will Not Alter Them.

No Need of Tammany Help to Put the Measures Through.

Senator Lexow was in a sarcastic frame of mind to-day. It was evident that he had been disturbed by arrangements for a mass-meeting on Wednesday night, to protest against the passage of his police measures. Still the Senator would not admit that this meeting may influence the Legislature.

"Does the Committee of Seventy imagine that we are children," he asked, "and that after nine months' consideration we will delay now because of a mass-meeting?"

"While we were working with all our efforts for the public interests they were doing nothing for reform except reading the newspapers and making passing comment. Now they talk over their victory in the guided clubs and houses, and they want to boss the Legislature."

"I say that the bills I have proposed are what the people want. They have been prepared with care and they will not be altered because of protests from wealthy clubmen and houses. If their plan was adopted New York would not be protected, but would be dictated to by the police force. If there had been a single head of the Police Department and that man had been determined, our investigation could have been blocked at the beginning. The principle is wrong and it will not be adopted."

Continuing, the Senator said that the Lexow bills will be passed a vote on Wednesday, and that they will be passed without the aid of Tammany Senator.

Referring again to the mass-meeting, he said: "This mass-meeting will not be representative unless those in favor of my bills are present. I want to see the seventy want to be fair, let it invite speakers to appear who favor the bills. That would be a fair mass-meeting and its deliberations would be given consideration."

Mr. Lexow stated that his bills are constitutional, and have been so declared by the eminent lawyers. The bills are in the city in force to-day, and it is understood that all are to get by without a hitch. Lexow is expected to confer with Platt either to-day or to-morrow and Speaker Hamilton will be present. Lexow is expected to return to Albany, among those returning to Albany are Messrs. Kibben and Haines, all of whom are in favor of forcing through the Lexow bills notwithstanding the opposition of the Tammany party.

A MOTHER'S DUTY.

TOWARDS HER DAUGHTERS.

Suggestions Which Bear Repeating, as Their Importance is Immeasurable.

Only a few years ago even the medical profession scouted the idea that young girls could suffer from the misery of uterine troubles.

That form of disease, it was claimed, came only to married women.

When Lydia E. Pinkham first sent out the news of her great discovery, there was much of hard speech from those whose practice and opinions she set at defiance.

But when young girls by the hundreds were absolutely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, then the tongues of the traducers were stilled, and truth was allowed to live in the hearts of the people.

Young girls are subject to this trouble. It robs them of the buoyancy of youth. It makes all effort distasteful. It causes retention and suppression of menses, leucorrhoea, severe headache, weak complexion, depression, weakness, loss of appetite and interest.

Certainly mothers ought to know that these are all symptoms of the one cause of nearly all the suffering that comes to women; and to save their daughters ought to begin treatment at once.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the great natural remedy for women ever compounded. It will accomplish its work with certainty.

MAJ. HURLEY'S BURNED BOOKS. He Did Not Know They Were Gone Until a Week Ago.

Still Probing State House in New Jersey.

(Special to The Evening World.) TRENTON, March 22.—The Senate Committee to investigate State House fires has not yet finished its work. Counselor Corbin recalled William Darcy, bookkeeper for Michael Hurley. The witness stated the cash book containing the cash receipts of Hurley for 1892 had been burned. Corbin said that in one place he had found the ledger, referring to the excavating contract for the new Assembly chamber, convinced him that one particular entry had been made recently than the others.

It was evident before Major Hurley had been on the stand three minutes that a sensation was not far away. Hurley testified to the fact that he had a duplicate bill or presented more than one at a time to Port. Nobody had changed his books, so far as he knew, at any time, and when an expert went over his books four years ago nothing was found. Hurley said he did not know until Monday that his cash book had been burned. He was not worth a cent, but if he had found them they might be of assistance.

John F. McAdams, a prominent member of the Sixty-seventh street German Baptist Church, is divided on the question of the pecuniary course of the pastor, Rev. William Roeder, in relation to the settlement of a mortgage on the church property and his subsequent action in expelling from membership certain members of the congregation who did not agree with him.

Judge McAdams, in the Superior Court, today granted an order to show cause why Marie Hupper and George Kieferle should not be reinstated as members of the church. The order is directed to Pastor Roeder and is made returnable next Tuesday morning.

The pastor, in addition to attending to the spiritual wants of his congregation, also keeps a coal and wood yard at Fifty-fifth street, between Ninth and Tenth avenues.

The brokers and traders who have been looking for reactions in the stock market were doomed to disappointment again to-day.

There were free purchases of the leading shares and several new features were added to the list, showing that the speculative interest is spreading.

The improvement in railway earnings and the tendency to fix up rate troubles in all directions are making a strong bull sentiment, and the belief obtains that the market will broaden out generally next week.

General Electric sold up 1-8, to 36-3/4, on the arrangement now being perfected with the Westinghouse people for an agreement that will do away with rate-cutting and the expensive litigation involved in the use of various patents.

SOME CHANGES ARE NEEDED.

Mr. Carlisle to Rearrange the Treasury Bureaus.

Then There Will Be More System and Less Clash.

(Special to The Evening World.) WASHINGTON, March 22.—At some time in the near future Secretary Carlisle will undertake the task of rearranging the assignment of several important Treasury Department bureaus. At present the Coast and Geodetic Survey is directly under his control. Assistant Secretary Curtis supervises the Marine Hospital Service, and the Steamboat Inspection Service. Assistant Secretary Hamlin controls the Revenue Cutter Service, while Assistant Secretary Wilke has under his charge the Bureau of Navigation and Immigration, the Lighthouse Board and the Life-Saving Service.

Yet all the bureaus mentioned have close relations and constant intercourse with each other. As a result, a matter of business which is agreed upon by two chiefs of bureaus has to be taken up and explained to two assistant secretaries, who in turn have to consult each other, with an occasional result, a failure to agree.

Secretary Carlisle asked Congress at the last session to give him a Fourth Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, under whose direction all these various bureaus might be grouped, but failing in securing that he will undertake the change himself.

Secretary Hamlin, having charge of Customs matters, is regarded as the one in whom control of the bureaus mentioned would naturally devolve. The Revenue Cutter Service is closely identified with the Customs and the Bureau of Navigation. Marine Hospital Service, Steamboat Inspection Service, Lighthouse Board, Life-Saving Service, Coast and Geodetic Survey follow closely seaboard and maritime matters. He would then naturally be released of the Bureau of Statistics and the Secret Service, the former going to Assistant Secretary Curtis, who supervises financial matters and the latter, with perhaps the special agents, being assigned to Assistant Secretary Wilke.

The changes would greatly facilitate the work of the bureaus, and would probably pave the way for the creation of a marine board on lines somewhat narrower than that of Great Britain.

TROY APPEALS TO MORTON.

A Delegation Declares the Murphy Police Force Unbearable.

Predicted That the Bill Under Discussion Will Soon Be a Law.

(Special to The Evening World.) ALBANY, March 22.—A group of members of the Committee of Public Safety of Troy visited the Executive Chamber at 9 o'clock this morning, to petition the Governor to give the city relief from the burden of the Murphy police force.

It had been rumored that the bill for reorganizing the Troy Police Department is being held in the Assembly Committee at the request of Gov. Morton, and it was to learn the truth or falsity of the report that the delegation appeared to-day.

A year ago a similar delegation attempted to present a petition to Governor Flower, and was threatened with arrest and indictment when they insisted upon an audience after being refused.

To-day a similar delegation, consisting of the members of the delegation cordially, but listened to all they had to say and then assured them that he was heartily in sympathy with what they sought to obtain in getting safer and better government for the city and that when the bill came before him he would give it his most careful consideration.

Mr. Morton listened attentively to their story of the wretched condition of affairs that had existed in Troy for many years. They insisted that Troy was the only city in the State where the city was governed by the Murphy police force. They said that the bill would be a relief to the city and that they would support it.

EXPULLED THE MALCONTENTS

Pastor Roeder Accused of Avenging Himself on His Critics.

They Brought Action to Compel Him to Account for Mortgage Money.

The congregation of the Sixty-seventh street German Baptist Church are divided on the question of the pecuniary course of the pastor, Rev. William Roeder, in relation to the settlement of a mortgage on the church property and his subsequent action in expelling from membership certain members of the congregation who did not agree with him.

The pastor, in addition to attending to the spiritual wants of his congregation, also keeps a coal and wood yard at Fifty-fifth street, between Ninth and Tenth avenues.

In 1888, it is claimed, he was given $100 with which to satisfy a mortgage on the church property, held by Catherine Karl. Subsequently members of the congregation claim to have discovered that the pastor retained the money, but refused to pay Mrs. Karl the interest on her mortgage.

The pastor set the question by paying off the mortgage before the suit was brought to trial. The pastor set the question by paying off the mortgage before the suit was brought to trial. The pastor set the question by paying off the mortgage before the suit was brought to trial.

TECHNICALITIES PREVENT ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL SELLING PROPERTY.

The application of St. Luke's Hospital for permission to sell its property, consisting of 32 lots of land on Fifth avenue, was denied by Judge Beckman in the Supreme Court to-day.
